Notice of an adjourned meeting need not be given if the time and place to which the meeting is adjourned are fixed at the meeting at which the adjournment is taken, and if the period of adjournment does not exceed thirty days in any one adjournment. Whenever any notice is required to be given to a Member under the provisions of Pennsylvania law or these Bylaws, a waiver thereof in writing, signed by the Member entitled to said notice, whether before or after the time stated therein, shall have the full legal effect of notice properly given.

ARTICLE 6

INDEMNIFICATION

Section 6.1. Right to Indemnity. Each person previously, now or hereafter a Member of the Board, a member of the Nominators Committee, an officer, or an employee of the Authority, whether or not then serving, in office or employed, shall be indemnified and reimbursed by the Authority against the costs and expenses reasonably paid or incurred by or imposed upon him or her in connection with any civil action, suit, claim, proceeding, or investigation instituted or threatened, to which he or she may be made a party or prospective party by reason of being or having been a Member of the Board, a member of the Nominators Committee, an officer or employee, or by reason of any act or thing alleged to have been done or omitted by him or her, either alone or with others, as a Member of the Board, a member of the Nominators Committee, officer, or employee or by reason of any act or omission, or alleged act or omission, that the Member, member of the Nominators Committee, officer, or employee believed in good faith to be within the scope of his or her office or employment and to be in the best interest of the Authority. In any case in which liability for any such acts or omissions of any such Member, member of the Nominators Committee, officer, or employee is imposed or sought to be imposed upon the estate of such Member, member of the Nominators Committee, officer, or employee, the right to indemnification and reimbursement herein conferred on the Member, member of the Nominators Committee, officer, or employee shall extend to the heirs, executors and/or administrators of any such Member, member of the Nominators Committee, officer, or employee, or any of them.

Section 6.2. Settled Claims. The right to indemnification and reimbursement hereby granted shall extend also to amounts paid or agreed to be paid for a Member, member of the Nominators Committee, officer, or employee in settlement or resolution of any such civil action, suit, claim, proceeding or investigation, instituted or threatened.

Section 6.3. Not an Exclusive Right. The right to indemnification and reimbursement hereby granted shall not be exclusive of, but shall be in addition to, the rights of Members, member of the Nominators Committee, officers, or employees to compensation for services performed and all other rights to which any such Member, member of the Nominators Committee, officer, or employee shall be entitled as a matter of law or equity.

Section 6.4. Costs and Expenses. For purposes of this Article 6, "costs and expenses" shall include any award, damages, restitution, judgment, fines, penalties, amounts ordered to be paid, the cost of appeal bonds, court costs, amounts paid in settlements approved pursuant to Section 6.2, and reasonable costs of defense, including but not limited to reasonable attorneys' and expert witness fees. Provided that the Member, member of the Nominators Committee, officer, or employee has made written request for indemnification and is entitled to indemnification under Section 6.1, the Authority will pay such costs and expenses as they are incurred or invoiced, as appropriate to the circumstance.

Section 6.5. No Indemnity for Willful Misconduct. The Authority may decline to provide a defense if the Authority determines, pursuant to a confidential, non-public proceeding, that the act or omission that gave rise to the action, suit, claim, proceeding, or investigation constitutes a crime, actual fraud, actual malice, or willful misconduct; however, if it is subsequently determined in any judicial, administrative, or arbitration proceeding that the act or omission did not constitute a crime, actual malice, actual fraud, or willful misconduct, the Authority shall promptly reimburse all costs and expenses incurred and, if applicable, shall provide a defense for any remaining or related legal proceedings. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, the Authority will not indemnify a Member, member of the Nominators Committee, officer, or employee where his or her acts or omissions are finally judicially determined to constitute a crime, actual fraud, actual malice, or willful misconduct. If the Authority provides a defense and indemnification hereunder, and it is subsequently judicially determined that the person's misconduct was criminal, malicious, fraudulent, or willful, then the person shall reimburse the Authority for all costs and expenses paid for his or her indemnification and defense.

Section 6.6. Control of Defense. When the Authority provides a defense under this Article 6, it may assume exclusive control of the defense, assuring that the person being defended is reasonably apprised of developments in the proceeding or with respect to the claim against him or her. Where the interests of the Authority and the person seeking indemnification conflict, or where two or more Members, member of the Nominators Committee, officers, or employees are the subject of claims or actions, and their interests conflict with one another, so long as the conflict exists, the Authority shall supply independent representation.

Section 6.7. Insurance. The Authority may purchase and maintain insurance covering any past, present, or future Member, member of the Nominators Committee, officer, or employee for any claims against him or her, or liability incurred by him or her in such capacity or arising from his or her acts or omissions as a Member, member of the Nominators Committee, officer, or employee. If insurance coverage and defense are available for any person entitled to indemnification and defense under this Article 6, then the Authority will require the person to look to the insurer for defense and indemnification, and will assist him or her in tendering the claim to the insurer.

Section 6.8. Costs and Expenses in Securing Indemnification. Should any Member, member of the Nominators Committee, officer, or employee seeking defense or indemnity under this Article 6 reasonably require the services of legal counsel in order to assert such rights, and should the Member, member of the Nominators Committee, officer, or employee substantially prevail in establishing a right to defense or indemnity, then the Authority will reimburse reasonable costs and expenses incurred in asserting such rights.

Section 6.9. Vested Right. The right to defense and indemnification set forth in this Article will apply to acts or omissions that pre-date the adoption of these Amended and Restated Bylaws, as well as those that post-date the adoption, regardless of when any related claim, action, suit, proceeding, or investigation may arise. The right to defense and indemnification hereunder is intended to be in the nature of a vested right such that, should this Article be revised or become inoperative so as to diminish the right of defense or indemnification presently set forth herein, Members of the Board, member of the Nominators Committee, officers, and employees will continue to be entitled to the full rights of defense and indemnification set forth in this Article at the time of its adoption with respect to any actual or alleged occurrence, action, or omission prior to its adoption. Any successor to the Authority shall be subject to all of the obligations of the Authority to defend and indemnify as set forth in this Article 6.
